Why Community Meetings?

- NANOG is dedicated to the people who make up our community
- We want to develop an environment of openness and transparency
- We desire open dialog and meaningful conversations
- We want to keep our community informed
- We are hoping for constructive feedback that will make NANOG a more open, diverse and inclusive community

Code of Conduct

In the spirit of mutual respect and collaboration, NANOG does not tolerate any unwelcome behavior, including but not limited to:

- Aggressively pushing your own services, products, or causes.
- Distribution or consumption of alcohol in NANOG-contracted spaces (alcohol not served by hotel-licensed providers).
- Audio or video recordings of the few sessions where such recording is not permitted.
- Engaging in any activity that is illegal, or violates NANOG's or its sponsors' contracts with venues or contractors.

Code of Conduct

- Offensive verbal comments or physical contact because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, physical appearance, personal appearance, race, color, national origin or religion (or lack thereof).
- Sexual images of any kind, displayed in public spaces.
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking, threatening, or following.
- Demeaning or disruptive behavior or speech.

Code of Conduct

- Harassing photography or recording of any kind.
- Sustained disruption of a presentation or other event.
- Inappropriate physical contact.
- Unwelcome sexual attention.

Outreach

- To increase diversity within our community, we must look outward.
- Educational outreach beyond our community, is crucial to the development of a healthy, diverse eco-system.
- It is our plan to empower students, women, people of color and groups living in areas with less access and resources.
- We plan to work with community liaisons to plan and deliver targeted programming that resonates with each unique audience.

Working together, for the internet of tomorrow.

We're dedicated to the ongoing advancement of an open, secure, and robust internet, by inspiring, educating, and empowering our community to meet the ever-changing demands of a global network.
